

Super Twists

Sometimes, you've got to call an audible. Before the playoffs even began, we started game-planning our Super Bowl Preview, preparing for every imaginable storyline—an Eli-Brady rematch, a Matt Ryan coming-out party, a Chiefs coronation. We even briefly (ever so briefly) envisioned a Brock Osweiler feature. Of course, the best-laid game plans have a way of blowing up—so much for our Ezekiel Elliott cover, and, oh wait, shouldn't we tee up something on Le'Veon Bell? Thankfully, our two-minute offense is pretty sharp, and heading into the conference championships, we had four different previews ready to go. Each covered a potential Super Bowl matchup, so as soon as the final teams were decided, we were ready to pull the trigger on the issue you now hold in your hands. We'd like to see Aaron Rodgers pull that off.
